

LEARNING WITHOUT WALLS

Matthew, Nicole, Marie

Thompson Rivers University campuses are on the traditional lands of the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc (Kamloops campus) and the T'exelc (Williams Lake campus) within Secwépemc'ulucw, the traditional and unceded territory of the Secwépemc. The region TRU serves also extends into the territories of the St'át'imc, Nlaka'pamux, Tâilhqot'in, Nuxalk, and Dakelh, and Métis communities within these territories.

Where it started

Introductions: If you would like, please put your name and institution into the chat window

Also in your chat window is a PDF handout

So that you know ... there is a dinosaur hiding in the website. If you find it, share your success in the chat window.

Where did Learning without Walls start?

- Summer of 2020 (authentic, engaging & personal student experience)
 - Gaining momentum
 - Creative chaos (information, organizing, re-organizing, more information – Faculty of Student Development – organizing again)

Graphic design and technical functionality

- Imagery, iconography and interaction
 - Making Moodle less Moodle-yyy
 - Mobile friendly WordPress

How it continued

- Many voices - Faculty of Student Development (FSD), Thompson Rivers University Student Union (TRUSU), Open Learning (OL), Marketing and Communication)
 - Collaborative efforts (getting the word out)
 - It's about students (feedback tool, sharing the future, students as partners)
 - Usage (Moodle and WordPress – why and how)

Let's go for a tour

- Here is the Moodle space
 - And the WordPress space

The survey
